From Our Pastor

Matthew 25:32" All the nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them one from another, as a shepherd divides his sheep from the goats. ³³ And He will set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left. ³⁴ Then the King will say to those on His right hand, 'Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:'"

These verses will be our memory verse starting in February. Our Sunday morning worship them is the "Road to the Cross." We are studying Christ final week on earth. We would encourage you to attend or listen to the messages on the website (fbcbellstx.org).

We have started back in our Wednesday and Sunday night programs. Everyone is enjoying our studies and fellowships. Inside the newsletter you will find more updates on the different programs.

An early note; we will not be doing the Walk with Jesus program that we have done the last several years. Instead, we will be presenting a Sunday evening program. It will be the true story of Easter. We will be having the students act or read the story with songs about what Jesus did for mankind. This event will be on Palm Sunday night at 6pm. We will have a free meal before the event also. So, please put that date on your calendar. April 14, 2019.

Youth

The FBC Bells Youth Group has started a study through the book of James called "Faith Works." We are praying that God would use this book to challenge those youth who do know Christ to grow in their Christian walks as well as challenge those who do not know him to see the lack of fruit in their lives and so trust in the name of Jesus. Please pray for salvation for the youth coming to our Wednesday night programs.

We will be attending Camp Copass in Denton, TX in July and have begun the process of fundraising since many of our youth are not able to afford the $265 camp fee. We are asking church members interested in helping a youth attend camp to pay $20/hour for him or her to come and do some work around your home. This money would be paid to the church in that youth's name. If you are interested in having a youth come work for you, you can sign up on the bulletin board by the copy room or email me at korey.kennedy@gmail.com.

Last but not least, congratulations to one of our youth, Miss Anna Brown, on being baptized on Jan 27th!

Thank you for your continued prayers and support as we work together to make disciples of young people in our community!

In Christ,
Korey and Macie Kennedy

From Our Worship Team

Whither your music style is traditional, contemporary, country/bluegrass, or classical, all of these can be used to praise and worship God. At FBC Bells, we have a blended service of traditional and contemporary music on Sunday mornings. All of this helps us prepare our hearts for a time of hearing God's word preached. Come join us on February 24th, for a "Throwback Sunday." We will have a Sunday morning of "Old Southern Gospel" music. Psalm 150 states we should "Praise God in the sanctuary, praise Him in his mighty heavens...Let everything that has breath praise the Lord." On the mountain top, praise the Lord, in the lowest pit, praise the Lord. God is already there.

The adult choir is working on our Easter cantata, every Sunday afternoon at 4:30. Everyone is welcome to participate.

There's within my heart a melody!

Camo Kids

Camo Kids is off to a wonderful start. Children are learning about Jesus and his ministry with many stories from the Bible. We will have a special event for Easter. More details to come in next newsletter.

Our First Camo Store will be March 6th.

Women On Mission

Women's Missionary Union was started in 1888 and is still going strong today. It is designed to bring women together for Bible study, prayer and mission ministry. The scope includes local missions, state missions and international missions. Through mission involvement women can mature their relationship with Christ and understand His purpose in their lives. God wants to use all women to impact His Kingdom. Come be a part of our local ministry group. We meet the Third Thursday of the month at 6:30 PM, at the church, next meeting is February 21st.

See you in the fields.
